Job Title

THE LEGAL ASSOCIATES PROGRAMME

Organization

I. Background/General Description

1. The African Union Commission (AUC) invites applications for its Legal Associates Programme (LAP). The programme is a highly competitive capacity building initiative of the Office of the Legal Counsel. Once engaged into this programme, the Legal Associates will be deployed in the Office of the Legal Counsel of the AUC for one (1) year from their assumption of duty.
2. The essence of the LAP is to provide and inculcate professional legal expertise in young African lawyers in the area of international Law and African integration as represented by the ideals, programmes and activities of the AUC, other Organs, Specialised Agencies and Institutions of the African Union. The overarching aim of the LAP is to emphasize the role of law in development, to equip the new generation of lawyers in the continent with knowledge of the common African legal positions and to assist in providing professional services to both the AUC, the Regional Economic Communities (RECs) and the various Member States.
3. The Legal Associates will be expected to proffer professional legal advice, undertake legal research, conduct comparative legal analysis, draft legal documents and provide legal support to ongoing projects and programs within the AUC, other Organs, Specialised Agencies and Institutions of the African Union.
4. The program will ensure equitable geographical and gender representation in addition to giving consideration to highest level of technical competence and knowledge
